Abstract

William B. Ward was an avid sports fan and collector of sports memorabilia. Sports played an ongoing role throughout his lifetime in the activities of both his personal and professional life, which is reflected in the contents of this collection. The collection contains a fraction of the library he owned of sports-related items amassed during his life that range from vintage team decals to game programs. The collection includes sports programs and schedules, scorecards, pamphlets, magazines, newspaper clippings, decals, and other printed material from professional, college, and high school sports teams.

Biographical Note

A native of Wichita Falls, Texas, William B. Ward was a dedicated sports fan and collector of sports memorabilia. He was born in Wichita Falls, Texas on January 27, 1896, where he lived growing up and during most of his adult life. Ward was involved in the sports community of his hometown, and extensively collected sports materials from Wichita Falls, as well as in the state of Texas. He played for both the baseball and football teams while attending Wichita Falls High School. Ward was an avid fan of his hometown high school football team and regularly attended their games as an adult. Locally, he had built a reputation for his expansive sports knowledge and personal library of collectable items.

Although Ward had a wide-ranging interest in all types of sports-related events, he had a particularly strong interest in baseball and football, and at times even tracked game scores and statistics while in attendance at games. His careers were diverse, particularly while living in California. From 1921 to 1924, Ward served as the head baseball coach and assistant athletic director at Hollywood High School in California. He additionally worked with the Hollywood Boy Scouts and organized the Hollywood Boys Club. Holding college degrees in electrical and mechanical engineering, he also worked as an electrician for a major film studio in Hollywood.

When Ward moved back to Wichita Falls, he formed the Wichita Falls Boys Club and Wichita Falls Baseball League. Ward also served as a member of the following fraternal and religious groups: Kiwanis Club, Maskat Temple, Masonic Lodge 635, A.F. & A.M. (Ancient Free and Accepted Masons) and First Presbyterian Church. He spent the remainder of his life living in Wichita Falls, and died on December 21, 1962 after suffering a cerebral hemorrhage. His surviving family members included his wife Ellene Collins and brother Joe E. Ward. His brother was also a serious collector and presumably assisted Ward with building his sports collection. Joe also played a vital role in the preservation of the materials after William's death.

Scope and Content

The William B. Ward Collection: 6 Boxes, 1 Oversized Box: 226 Folders, 1893-1970 (1340 items)

This collection documents the interests of William B. Ward and his brother Joe Ward, as sports enthusiasts and collectors of sports memorabilia. The material dates from approximately the mid-1920s to the mid-1960s, with the majority of the items falling between 1950 and 1965. The collection includes sports programs and schedules, scorecards, pamphlets, magazines, newspaper clippings, decals, and other printed material from professional, college, and high school sports teams. Sports covered include football, baseball, basketball, the Olympics (1932, 1948, 1956, 1960), boxing, horse racing, rodeo, jai alai, and roller derby. Especially notable in the collection are football programs from Wichita Falls High School (1945-1969), The University of Texas (1946-1966), UCLA (1935 – 1960), the University Of Southern California (1932-1949), and the Texas vs. Oklahoma Oil Bowl high school all-star game (1948-1962). Other sports teams/organizations covered by the material include the Los Angeles Rams, San Francisco Giants, Wichita Falls Spudders J, Rice University, and others. Ward's involvement with the Helms Athletic Foundation is also documented and the collection includes a number of press releases from the organization. Non-sports related material in the collection includes personal correspondence, postcards, items documenting William's involvement with several fraternal organizations, and other printed material.

Collection Arrangement

The William B. Ward Collection: 6 Boxes, 1 Oversized Box: 226 Folders, 1893-1970 (1340 items)

The collection was processed by the Harry Ransom Center of The University of Texas at Austin before that institution decided the contents did not match its general collecting strategy. The HRC inventory lists of The William B. Ward Sports Library indicate that the material was organized alphabetically at the file level, which generally grouped materials together by sport. The current arrangement combines these two systems, separating the collection into categories of General Materials—William B. and Joe Ward, Football, Baseball, Other Sports-Related Material, and General Materials with the files grouped under these categories arranged alphabetically. Each folder contains a photocopy of the label from the envelopes the collection arrived in from the HRC. Some folders have multiple photocopies because certain envelopes contained material on more than a single subject.
