Biographical Note

Albert Davis was born in 1862. Davis resided in Brooklyn, New York, for most of his life, where he ran a theatre sign painting business. In his youth, he formed the comedy team, Davis and Kelly, which he participated in for five years. When his childhood dream of becoming an actor was spurned by his parents, he began collecting photographs, programs, clippings and other theatre-related artifacts. Davis also collected rare photographs and cabinet cards of boxers and wrestlers as well as images from baseball, football, cycling, and a variety of other sports. The Albert Davis Photography Collection is comprised of Davis' sports related photographs. Davis obtained his collection by asking performers for photographs and collecting from dealers. During his lifetime Davis rented this and other collections to motion picture companies, newspapers and magazines, and loaned them to museums. He also allowed historians of the stage to use his collection in compiling books and went to Hollywood to act as an expert on scenery and costume details. He had two sons, Emanuel Davis and Alex Davis. Albert Davis died in his Brooklyn home in 1942 and is buried in Union Fields Cemetery, Brooklyn.

According to his obituary in Billboard (05/02/1942), Davis' collection originally included 100,000 photographs, more than 100,000 programs, 50,000 lithographs, and "miscellaneous items." His obituary in The Brooklyn Eagle (04/22/42) reports that Davis valued his collection at $60,000 and that the collection "practically filled every nook of his home."

Scope and Content

Albert Davis Photography Collection: 1 Card Catalog Drawer, 8 Boxes, 2 Oversized Boxes: 83 folders, 1 Card Catalog Drawer 1850-1937 (1,403 items)

The materials in this collection date from roughly 1850–1937, with the bulk of the materials dating from the period of 1880-1928. The collection consists entirely of photographic materials, including traditional photographic prints, Cartes de visite, cabinet cards, scrapbook pages, and a small amount of negatives. The collection includes portraits, action shots, and candid photographs. The primary subject documented in the collection is boxing, especially bare-knuckle boxing. The collection includes large quantities of photographs of notable boxers such as Jack Dempsey, James J. Corbett, Joe Louis, James J. Jeffries, Gene Tunney, James Braddock, John L. Sullivan, and Benny Leonard. The collection also includes photographs of other lesser-known athletes. Other sports represented in the collection include baseball, wrestling, golf, swimming, cycling, billiards, bag punching, basketball, tennis, horse racing and football. Also included in the collection are photographs of sports managers, family members of athletes, sports journalists, score reporters, sports club owners, and other non-athletic performers and entertainers. There are also many photographs documenting athletes-as-actors. Many photographs in the collection include news clippings or brief typed descriptions, which are affixed to the back of the materials. Many photographs also include handwritten captions, ranging from only names, dates, or locations to anecdotes and statistics about events and athletes.

Collection Arrangement

The Harry Ransom Center (HRC) of The University of Texas at Austin processed the collection before the institution decided the contents did not match its general collection strategy. With the exception of one box of materials, the Harry Ransom Center arranged the collection alphabetically by subject at the item level. The collection, as processed by the HRC, also contains one card catalog drawer, which provides brief descriptions of the subjects in the photographs, arranged in alphabetical order. The bulk of the card catalog records are for A-M, with intermittent listings through S.

Along with brief descriptions, the card catalog records contain alphanumeric identifiers, which correspond to handwritten identifiers on the back of most of the photographs. However, many photographs do not have these identifiers connecting them to the card catalog and the existence of a card catalog record does not guarantee that the described photo exists within the processed collection. When available, the HRC catalog numbers have been paired with the photograph.

The current arrangement separates the collection into series by sports activities, with folders arranged alphabetically by the photograph subject. Images that contain multiple subjects are filed according to the arrangement maintained in the card catalog. Additional information about the photographs may be found in the caption as well as in the card catalog record, when available. A series titled Unknown photographs has been included, which consists primarily of identified individuals whose connection to a specific sports activity is unknown. It is important to note that many of the card catalog records misspelled subjects' names and speculated about the subjects' identities as well as the dates the photographs were taken. The current arrangement attempts to accurately reflect dates and subject names whenever possible. Many of the photographs appear to be reprints and were used in publications after their original printing. Due to the inability to ascertain accurate dates of the photographs, many of the items remain undated.

THE STARK CENTER

Culture & Sports

In 2015, the Stark Center was contacted by Michael Silver, a noted boxing historian, who offered to help identify the "unknown" boxers. Once identified, the photo was moved to the correct alphabetical folder and the finding aid was updated to note the move and name change. Also included was a notation that the photo was identified by Mr. Silver. The Stark Center and boxing enthusiasts are very grateful to Mr. Silver for his efforts. Copies of Mr. Silver's emails may be found in Appendix A.

Hi Cindy,

I was able to identify the following 15 photos from Folder # 1. Others will require more time to identify.

Photo # UN-B-2-002: Jack Dempsey (on left without headguard) in sparring exhibition 1921. According to the signs around the ring this was a benefit to raise money for Mississippi flood damage. I believe the year is 1921 and location may be Atlantic City and Dempsey was preparing for Georges Carpentier fight in July 1921.

UN-B_003 These are not real boxers. This is a novelty photo posed by unknown individuals.

UN-B-75_21 Not a real fight. This staged photo using actors appears to be a movie still from some unknown boxing movie.

UN-79_018 Movie still from the 1933 Hollywood film "The Prizefighter and the Lady" starring Max Baer and Myrna Loy. Pictured are Baer (standing) and Primo Carnera (down).

UN-B84_010 Benny Leonard (left) vs. Lew Tendler (right) in lightweight title bout (I believe this is first title bout in 1922).

UN-B-85_006 Joe Louis

UN-B-86_009 This is a staged photo. Perhaps from a boxing film. Not an actual boxing match or real boxers. Actors unknown

UN-C-140_008 Another staged photo using actors.

UN-D-64_004 (see first photo). Jack Dempsey (on left) with unknown sparring partner. According to sign in photo this was an exhibition match to raise funds for Mississippi flood damage of 1921.

Regards,
Mike Silver

Hi Cindy,

Following are boxers identified in Folder # 2. (Bare-knuckle boxers are not my strong point so identifying most of these boxers will take some time but I was able to identify several of them).

UN31_023 George Rooke (Bare knuckle boxer)
UN28_025 Professor Mike Donovan (bare knuckle boxer)
UN17_008 Georges Carpentier (Light heavyweight champion 1920-1922)
UN02-007 I am fairly certain this is Jake Kilrain who fought John L. Sullivan for the bare knuckle heavyweight title in 1889.
UN43-016 Joe Gans (lightweight champion 1902-1908)
UN_S-54_013 Eddie Huffman (right) vs. Young Stribling (left) October 10, 1925, Los Angeles.
UN-T-52-029 According to the back of the photo this is Steve Taylor a bare knuckle fighter who fought John L. Sullivan
UN-T-52_030 Back of photo says "Looks like Steve Taylor". It may be but I can't say for sure.

Regards,
Mike

I think the following two photos look like Jack McAuliffe but I can't be 100% sure.

UN-B-71-024 Jack McAuliffe on right with unknown boxer. These photos appear to be from a boxing instruction book.
