To Submit a Paper or Session for Consideration: Please submit abstracts as a WORD DOC via email to kim@starkcenter.org. The abstract should contain in order:

1. Write either “ZOOM” or “IN PERSON” at the top of the page. Please also indicate if this is an Individual Paper or Part of a Session. If submitting a paper as part of a session/panel please also see below.
2. Your name; academic affiliation; email address, and phone number. Graduate students must also include the name of your supervising advisor and your home department.
3. Full title of paper as it should appear in the conference program.
4. A 250-300 word abstract discussing the paper’s subject, theoretical and methodological approaches, sources and significance of the research.
5. Short biography of the author(s) of approximately 50 words.

Session or Panel Organizers should submit a sheet containing all the information above for themselves and also list the names and affiliations of all speakers. Sessions should have an over-arching title and each paper should be individually titled. Session abstracts may all be pasted into one document or they can be submitted individually.

The University of Texas is in the heart of downtown Austin, making it a convenient vacation spot for academics. Looking south in this photo you can see the tall UT administration tower, the rotunda of the capital building, and the skyscrapers of Austin’s vital urban center. Come join us and see why people have made Austin one of America’s most popular travel destinations. And, please let us know if you’d like to come early and do research in our archives before arriving in Austin.
